

Serve Horse Game

Players play HORSE while hitting at target areas of the service box.

The first player calls out one of the six ground target areas and if he hits the correct area, his opponent must match it, or they get letter.

The game is played until one player spells out “horse” and loses the game.

The must use enough power that the second bounce of the serve exits the blue court area.